Catering

Final menus must be agreed with the Catering Manager a minimum of 2 weeks before the visit. If cancellation occurs within 2 weeks of the visit, the Organiser could be liable to pay up to 50% of the catering costs. This liability will be extended to 100% if cancellation occurs within one week of the visit. Any special wines or drinks ordered in advance may also be charged for on the same basis.

Dress Code & General Behaviour

Smart casual wear is the minimum requirement in all areas of the Club. Jeans are not allowed and collared shirts or polo necks are required. In the Clubhouse we ask that guests do not wear hats or wet weather gear and footwear is required at all times. Normal Golfing attire and golf shoes are required on the course and shirts should be tucked into trousers. Tailored shorts are allowed with knee length socks or short white sports socks.

All visitors are expected to behave in a civilised manner at all times. Physical attacks, excessively loud, foul or abusive language or discriminatory comments of a racial or sexual nature towards other guests or members of staff are not acceptable. Guests who fail to comply with these guidelines will be asked to leave the premises.
